

The Institute of Health Economics (IHE) Life Sciences Open Innovation Platform™

What is the IHE Life Sciences Open Innovation Platform™ ?

An online “ideasourcing” platform to permit a broad pan-Canadian community to comment on key issues and topics related to life science policy.

Preliminary campaigns will focus on biosimilars policy.

Ideas with the most support will be used to inform policy discourse at an IHE biosimilars forum with payor, provider, patient and industry community leaders, at the 2017 CADTH Symposium.

Participation is Easy.
